

Preparing for Ministry – Personal Reflections

As you prepare to come for UNBOUND prayer ministry, you might find it helpful to reflect on and answer some of the questions below. These questions will help to bring to the surface things you will want to share in the session. This is for your private use only.

Issue Questions

What have you come to ministry for today?

Fill in the blank: “If I could be set free from just one thing today, it would be_____.”

Is there a place in your life where you feel “stuck” and unable to act/think/feel as you really want to? This could be a thought pattern, an addiction, an emotional reaction, a pattern of events that seems to recur.

Have you ever been involved in occult practices like using Ouija boards or consulting horoscopes, tarot cards, or fortunetellers? Has anyone in your family been involved in the occult? (See Appendix #1 of UNBOUND)

Root Questions

When did the issue you wrote about above first start?

Do you feel there are any connections with this issue and events in your past?

Have you received prayer for this before? What happened?

Do other people in your family struggle with the same thing?

Forgiveness Questions

What are the significant traumas in your life (i.e., loss, hurt, humiliation, fear, etc.)?

Have you forgiven the people involved in those events? Have you forgiven yourself? List anyone you think you still need to forgive, people you can't seem to forgive, or people you might need to forgive more deeply?

Identity Questions

Briefly describe your relationship with God. Have you ever verbally express a personal decision to receive Him as Savior and to follow Him as Lord?

Is your relationship with God personal or is it distant? Do you find it hard to relate to God the Father? Jesus? The Holy Spirit?

In relationship to God, is it hard for you to see yourself as a son/daughter, disciple, servant, beloved, vessel, instrument, valuable, forgiven, desired, liked, etc. (There is no one right answer)?
